INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY DAY

By Millie and Amelie

We interviewed Ms Punter (our Sheldon librarian) she was very enthusiastic talking about the library because it is something she is very passionate about. Her favourite book in the library is Delirium by Lauren Oliver, The Good Girl's Guide to Murder series and all of the libraries' manga books of which there are many. Ms Punter's favourite book is Frankenstein by Mary Shelley, Ms Punter quotes 'It was very impressive and has an incredible backstory.'

The year sevens have all had the pleasure of choosing a book from the Bookbuzz selection. Sheldon has had the pleasure to have access to Bookbuzz for ten years. Ms Punter said that Bookbuzz is so important because no matter what background students have, they will always have a book to read.' That is also the reason the library is so important and why Ms Punter would like it to stay as a book-based library and not just reading from a screen. 'Books should still be the main part of the library.'

CHIPPENHAM MUSEUM PHOTO CLUB

By Ethan

Chippenham Museum Photo Club is an after-school club, based in the museum, running photography projects for young people aged 11–17 to learn new skills and be creative.

Since May of this year, club members have had the opportunity to visit a number of different sporting activities and clubs to capture the energy and enjoyment of playing sports and games for their Time to Play project. The project aimed to capture the importance of play for physical development and emotional well-being while helping to raise awareness and funds to support the work of the NSPCC with children and young people

The resulting exhibition of photography opened on June 9th in support of the NSPCC's Childhood Day the charity's national flagship day of fundraising and action, and the project is still going, so it's not too late to join!

Sessions are every Wednesday from 4.30pm – 5.30pm at the Chippenham museum, its £3 per session and suitable for ages 11-17.

SUPER SCROOGE

An Interview with Miss Waller about the school's production of 'A Christmas Carol'

We interviewed Miss Waller, who is co-directing this year's school production, which is "A Christmas Carol".

Our question: Why did you and Mr. White choose "A Christmas Carol" for this year's school production?

Her answer: We wanted it to be a more Christmassy and we thought that it is more recognisable than Macbeth (last year's school production)

Our question: How did you choose your actors/actresses for the main parts?

Her answer: We had a very vigorous audition process which runs over 3 nights, and people had the option to choose who they would most like to be.

Our question: What's the hardest part of directing a school production? [Miss Waller laughed when we asked her this!]

Her answer: Making sure everybody turns up on the right night who needs to turn up

Our question: Why should people come and see the show?

Her answer: Because it's the highlight of the Performing Arts calendar, its really fun and lots of people got involved. Everyone involved has worked really hard and I believe that people should come and congratulate them for that. Everyone needs a bit of joy at Christmas.
