BRAIN DUMPS

Write down everything you know about a topic – no notes, no looking! Then check and fill the gaps.

EXAM QUESTIONS

Practise real exam questions. Get used to the style, timing and how to structure your answers.

SELF-QUIZZING & FLASHCARDS

Test yourself with flashcards or quick quizzes. Ask the question, then try to answer from memory.

TEACH SOMEONE ELSE

Explain it out loud to a friend, family member or even yourself. If you can teach it, you really know it.

Creating a revision timetable

1. Start with fixed commitments
2. Two subjects per session 4-5 days per week
3. Prioritise weak subjects
4. Consider double awards

Attendance is key

Students who have good attendance do better

- 95% sounds great doesn't it?
- That equates to one half day out of school every two weeks
- Almost 60 lessons lost across the year

Research from the department of education says “if you have 95%+ attendance, you are almost twice as likely to achieve a Grade 5+ in English and Maths”
