Sheldon School Sixth Form Information Evening

Thursday 9th November

6.00pm

Arrival from 6pm to visit subjects and explore the site

Welcome to the Sheldon School Sixth Form Information Evening

The evening has four main elements to it:

- A general presentation about the Sixth Form
- Subject presentations
- Subject stalls
- Enrichment opportunities – Project 5000 + Electives

General Presentations by Mr Eugene Spiers, Head of Sixth Form, in the main school hall. Each presentation will last about 25 minutes.

- 6.15pm
- 6.45pm

Subject Presentations (see subject locations)

These will be repeated four times during the evening at:

6.20pm / 6.50pm / 7.20pm / 7.50pm

These sessions will last for approximately 15 minutes. The locations are listed at the back of this programme.

Subject Stalls

If you would like to know about a subject but do not have the time to attend the subject presentations, then you can simply visit their stall. Both teaching staff and current students will be on hand to answer your questions.

Enrichment Opportunities – Project 5000 + Electives

There will be displays in the refectory about many of the enrichment opportunities on offer including:

- The Duke of Edinburgh Award – Gold
- Ten Tors
- Sixth Form Games
- British Sign Language
- Beginners Russian
- Beginners Spanish
- Extended Project Qualification
- Volunteering / mentoring
